

HORNIMAN MUSEUM

Conservation Officer Collections Conservation & Care

Pay rates currently under review – circa £25,000 pa

Short Term Contract

The Horniman Museum is offering a short term contract for four months. This is an excellent opportunity for an experienced objects conservator to work in the Collections Conservation and Care Section. The work will concentrate on conserving and preparing objects for two new temporary exhibitions, one focusing on Dance in Bali, the other and exhibition in association with the Olympic year called 'The Body Adorned', along with ongoing work towards the Review of the Environmental Control Strategic Study carried out in 1992.

Applicants should have a good range of post-qualification practical experience which encompasses the care, documentation and treatment of a wide range of organic and inorganic objects in a museum environment.

To access further information and an application pack please visit our website at <http://www.horniman.ac.uk/more/vacancies.php>.

Should you wish to discuss the position on an informal basis then please contact Louise Bacon, Head of Collections Conservation & Care on 020 8291 8682

Closing date for completed application forms is Monday 22 January 2010 at 5pm

Interviews will be held in the first week of February 2010

The Trust is committed to equality of opportunity and welcomes applicants from all sections of the community.

Registered Charity in England and Wales No. 802725